

Sending love to our Syrian friends

Basimah* is a girl from Syria. She had to leave her country because the fighting was so bad.

Syrian refugee children in Jordan

'I HOPE THAT ALL YOUNG CHILDREN CAN GO BACK TO THEIR HOMES, SCHOOLS AND COUNTRY,' she says.

THINK AND PRAY

Basimah hopes syrian children can soon go back home and see their family and friends.

- Why are families and friends important?
- What can we pray for?

Basimah hopes the children can go back to school.

- Why do you go to school? What do you like about school?
- What can we pray for?

Basimah hopes syrian children can go back to their country. For that to happen, the people who are fighting need to agree to peace.

- What can we pray for?

'THUMBS UP FOR SYRIA!' children's activity

Print out the 'Thumbs up for Syria!' poster on a separate page.

The children in your group can put their thumbprints on the poster to show that they are praying for children like Basimah. They might like to write their name and age under their thumbprint.

Then send this poster back to us at Tearfund, and we will pass it on to Syrian refugee children to let them know you care.
